Neither is it to suggest that all of what they do is wrong. The problem is that in trying to communicate Christian love to Israel to undo the damage done by Christian anti-Semitism, they leave out Christ and the whole purpose of God — they preach a Christless social gospel. The church must both proclaim God's purpose in returning the Jews to their ancient land and the way of salvation. Some ministries indeed do both. Moriel endorses Church's Ministry Among the Jews, Jews For Jesus, the Messianic Testimony, Chosen People Ministries, Ariel, the Lausanne Consultation On Jewish Evangelism, the Danish and Norwegian Missions To Israel, and Christian Witness To Israel, but warn against such deceptions as Bridges For Peace, Wings Of Eagles, the Ebenezer Fund, Christian Action For Israel, and above all the International Christian Embassy. Once examined biblically such agencies are deceptions and not of God.

NEWS and PRAYER LETTER

JUNE 1997

No. 10

Over one million copies of the booklet entitled Shalom have been distributed in Israel by Morris Cerullo's organisation, resulting in book burnings at protest demonstrations outside of Israel's Parliament, attacks in the press, and harassment of local believers.

The Lausanne Consultation On Jewish Evangelism reports the book was massively circulated without consultation with the local leaders and congregations, who are now paying the price for it.

Concerning Ecumenism? The people speak!

Ecumenism is not a side issue. It is a matter of utmost importance that we resist the tide. Below are some of the people who have signed the petition to call Lausanne Consultation for Jewish Evangelism to renounce their ecumenism and to guarantee their abstinence from any ecumenical partnerships. They are all from different churches and ministries but that are all united in this belief that Ecumenism is a danger to the body of Christ.

Some of the Signatories of the Petition:

Ruth Nessim – CJF missionary in Israel. www.cjfm.org

Miguel Hayworth – Director of First Plumblin Apologetics.

James Jacob Prasch – Director of Moriel Ministries international.
