RE: YOUR BLOG: GRAHAM POWER

Dear Deborah and Thomas

I refer to your blog and specifically to your article titled "Graham Power a Freemason meets Pope Francis". I cannot understand how you can make this outrageous statement without having the courtesy and good grace of first approaching me to establish if what you are alleging is true or not.

For the record, your allegations are completely untrue. I am not and never have been a Freemason.

By publishing this untruth you are causing deep hurt and harm to my family and to me. You are also damaging my Christian witness.

I am shocked and disappointed that a brother and sister in Christ would be prepared to do this to me. What have I done to you to deserve this attack on my integrity?

We should be building each other up as followers of Christ rather than undermining each other. If you are of the opinion that I have strayed from what is good and true, than call me to account after establishing the true facts, but not before. This plays into the hands of the enemies of the Gospel.

What you are saying about me is defamatory. Kindly remove reference to me being a Freemason immediately and state that this allegation is untrue. Should you fail to do so I reserve all my rights to take whatever legal action is necessary. I sincerely trust that this will not be necessary.

Yours faithfully

Graham Power
